

Did You Know...

- In 2009 the Ballard Food Bank distributed over one million pounds of food.

- 27% of our food recipients are elderly. 14% are children.

- Our food comes from a variety of sources including local grocery store donations, private donations and the government.

- The vast majority of the Ballard Food Bank's funding comes from neighborhood donors and local small businesses.

- We help our clients with more than just food. We also help with clothing, hygiene items and financial assistance.
